DOMINICAN REPUBLIC IMMIGRATION

To enter the Dominican Republic, a valid passport with at least 6 months validity beyond return date and with two blank pages is required. At the customs and immigration desk, you'll receive a 30-day tourist card (US$10 cash fee) instead of a visa.

By Dominican law, there's also a US$20 departure tax, the cost of which is usually included in your airfare (verify with your carrier). Airport Special Security (CESAC) follows but is not limited to TSA guidelines.

You can purchase your Tourist Card online at the Punta Cana International Airport's website.

This will save you time upon arrival at the airport.
