Aruba Embarkation and Disembarkation Card

To enter Aruba a valid passport with at least 6 months validity beyond return date along with the Aruba Embarkation and Disembarkation Card (ED Card) is required.

You may apply online for your Aruba Embarkation and Disembarkation Card. There is no fee for the ED Card.

Before you begin this process, please make sure that you have a valid passport, and an e-mail address that you have access to. You will need to supply information from your passport, your flight number, your resort name and address to successfully complete the online application form. A confirmation of your application will be sent to the provided e-mail address for you to print and travel with.

The online application consists of a few easy steps:

1. Complete your application online.
2. Submit your application online.
3. Print your application if you desire.
4. Receive confirmation in email. Print it and put it with your passport.

The Benefits of applying ahead of time:

- Easy online application (registration)
- Quick processing times
- Reduces waiting time upon arrival in Aruba

After Immigration, your baggage will have to pass through Customs and may be subjected to Customs Examination. If you need information regarding Customs, visit www.douane.aw
